

The youth artists of The Light use song, dance, and spoken word to spread awareness of topics they are passionate about such as equity in the music industry, eating disorders, and self-love. Here are a list of community resources they want to share that are connected to their performances.

Alsana 24-hour Hotline
(866-403- 6122)

Alsana is an eating recovery community and treatment provider that helps adult clients of all genders achieve lasting eating disorder recovery and whole health.

NABFEME (National Association of Black Female Executives in Music & Entertainment)
www.nabfeme.org

NABFEME is the National Association of Black Female Executives in Music & Entertainment, Inc.® ... a diverse non-profit, networking, empowerment and resource base for women in the business of music and entertainment. With twenty (20) active Networks and hubs in the USA, Canada, and Africa... the mission of NABFEME seeks to raise the profile and increase the awareness of Black women in music and entertainment.

S.O.U.L. (Southsiders Organized for Unity & Liberty)
www.soulinchicago.org

SOUL is working to build a movement to create change. We have keenly listened to the communities that we serve to develop a shared vision. We are dedicated to the belief that all people deserve decent and affordable housing, access to healthy, nutritious food in every neighborhood, and a sanitary environment where people will be able to breathe clean air and drink clean the water

SocialWorks (www.socialworkschi.org)

SocialWorks, founded by Grammy-award-winning musician and humanitarian Chance the Rapper, aims to empower the youth through the arts, education, and civic engagement.

Chicago Coalition for the Homeless (www.chicagohomeless.org)

Fighting for the human right for housing since 1980.

The Center on Halsted (www.centeronhalsted.org)

Center on Halsted is the Midwest's most comprehensive community center dedicated to advancing community and securing the health and well-being of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer (LGBTQ) people of Chicagoland. More than 1,000 community members visit the Center every day, located in the heart of Chicago's Lakeview Neighborhood.

Brave Space Alliance (www.bravespacealliance.org)

A Black-Led, Trans-Led LGBTQ+ Center on the South Side of Chicago.